

The Southern AIDS Coalition

in collaboration with

Briefing on the American AIDS Epidemic: Where We Stand in 2009 Access to HIV Care in America is cost effective & medically necessary

Thursday May 28thth, 2009

12:00 p.m. – 1:30 p.m.

Cannon Caucus Room: Cannon House Office Building Room 345

Speakers:

The Honorable Eleanor Holmes Norton- Member of the United States Congress (invited)

HIV in Communities of Color – Health Disparity Tragically Highlighted

Jeffrey S. Crowley- Director, Office of National AIDS Policy - The White House

Where We Are Going On Domestic HIV/AIDS

Michelle Collins-Ogle M.D.- Medical Director, Northern Outreach Clinic NC

HIV Treatment Today Maximizing Cost Effectiveness

Robert Greenwald- Director, Treatment Access Expansion Project

Providing a policy context for Early Access to HIV care – ADAP & ETHA

Mark B. Feinberg M.D.- PhD V.P. Policy, Public Health & Medical Affairs, Merck & Co. Inc. & Professor of Medicine, Emory University School of Medicine, Atlanta, GA

The Future of HIV Treatments

Beth Scalco- Co-Chair, Southern AIDS Coalition

The Impact of HIV/AIDS in the South

Deadra Lawson Smith- PWH

Living With HIV for Decades to Come

With the support of Members of Congress:

The Honorable Donna Christian-Christensen M.D.

The Honorable Maurice Hinchey

The Honorable Eliot Engel

The Honorable Ileana Ros-Lehtinen

Special acknowledgements go out to the following supporters of this educational program:

The AIDS Institute

The ADAP Advocacy Association

EMD Serono

Merck & Co., Inc.

Tibotec Therapeutics

Ramsell Holding Corp

