

Kurt Galbraith joined the TIICANN Board of Directors in January 2005. Kurt is currently employed as the Care Coordinator for the HIV/AIDS/Hepatitis Program of the Wyoming Department of Health. In that position, he is responsible for the administration and implementation of all aspects of the Ryan White Title II Program and the AIDS Drug Assistance Program (ADAP) for the State of Wyoming. Kurt was instrumental in obtaining the first ever state general fund contribution to Wyoming ADAP in 2003, and continues to advocate for additional much-needed resources for people living with HIV/AIDS, both in Wyoming and nationally.

Kurt also serves on the Wyoming Statewide Community Planning Group for HIV Prevention, and the Title III Advisory Committee of the Community Health Center of Central Wyoming. In addition, Kurt is certified in client-centered HIV counseling and testing, and volunteers in that capacity frequently.

Outside of his passion for his work, Kurt enjoys all things computer related, loves to travel, read, and is a self-described reality television addict. He is fluent in American Sign Language, and has collected penguins since early childhood. Kurt and his partner Brian make their home near Greeley, Colorado.
