Community Access National Network Seats New Board Member; Trelvis D. Randolph, Esq.

Also, Five Current Board Members Seated for Two More Years

WASHINGTON, DC (September 10, 2018) – The Community Access National Network, otherwise known as CANN, today announced it has seated Trelvis D Randolph, Esq. to its board of directors. In addition, CANN re-seated several current board members to serve another two-year term.

Trelvis D. Randolph is a partner in the Miami office of Cole, Scott & Kissane, P.A.. He began his legal career in the Miami-Dade County Public Defender's Office where he represented clients charged with misdemeanor and serious felony offenses. After several subsequent years of doing civil litigation, he joins our firm. Mr. Randolph focuses his practice in the areas of premises liability; nursing home and assisted living facilities; personal injury; vehicle negligence; general civil litigation; hospitality industry defense; negligent security; and professional liability. Mr. Randolph is a native of Memphis, Tennessee and received his Bachelors of Arts degree in Political Science from Memphis State University and his Juris Doctor degree from Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law at The University of Memphis. During law school, Mr. Randolph was very active in several organizations including the Black Law Students Association, Moot Court Board, American Inns of Court and Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. Mr. Randolph is the current President of the Wilkie D. Ferguson, Jr., Bar Association. He also serves as the General Counsel of the Miami-Dade Branch of the NAACP. Mr. Randolph is also an elected member of the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA). He has been a member of the Board of Directors of SAVE for several years and is also active with the local ACLU. He is also active with the National Bar Association as well as the National African American Insurance Association. Mr. Randolph has proudly served the United States of America as an infantry soldier in the United States Army, as well as the Tennessee Army National Guard.

The current board members re-seated for another two-year term include: Mr. Darnell Ferrell, Mr. Michael J. Eging, Mr. Edward "Eddie" Hamilton, Mr. Jeffrey R. Lewis, and Ms. Kimberly A. Williams.
